Number of jobs retained for low income persons:

RLF dollars per job created:

RLF dollars per job retained:

Describe the methodology to be utilized for ensuring the number of jobs listed above for low income persons: (provide documentation where applicable). Applicants should note that jobs paying minimum wage do not necessarily qualify as low income jobs. Individuals family income levels adjusted for family size at the time of application for employment determine qualification.

Permanent full-time positions of at least one year's duration (except in certain cases of agricultural businesses whose operations are necessarily seasonal, the RLF will consider as permanent any full-time job of at least twelve (12) consecutive weeks' duration, and will count it as the equivalent of one-fourth (1/4) of a permanent job. For example, if an agricultural business proposed to employ 100 persons, each for twelve (12) full-time consecutive weeks, the number of jobs created would be counted as 25. Likewise, were 100 persons to be employed, each for 24 full-time consecutive weeks, the number of jobs created would be counted as fifty (50).*

For retained jobs, the application should contain summary information on the number and percent of the retained jobs that are held by low and moderate income individuals. This would normally require that workers be surveyed prior to the application being submitted.*

Must meet the 51% threshold for low income persons (i.e., at least 51% of the jobs created or retained must be for low income persons).
